Fold a square of paper in half and press along the fold.
Open out.

Keeping the fold upwards turn paper 90° and fold in half again, press along the fold. Open out.

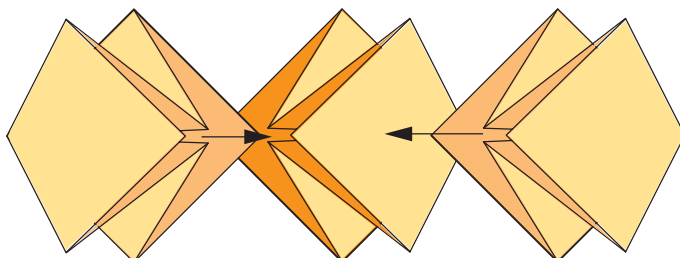

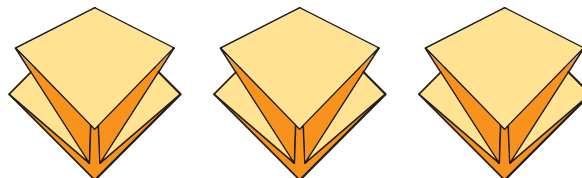

Turn paper over so that the creases are upwards.
Make a diagonal fold, press along the crease.

The book should now fold in on itself.

Make two more.

You should have three shapes.

Glue along the back square on 1 shape and place over the inside of the second shape. Press firmly.

Glue along the back of the third shape and press over the back of the middle shape. Press firmly.

Decorate the front of the book.

The book is now ready for messages and signatures of new friends.

Each time you open it, it will fold back into itself again.
